Sara and Omar always help their parents at home. Sara helps her dad cook lunch and cuts the fresh vegetables carefully. Omar makes his bed and their small cat. They enjoy helping their parents very much because it makes the family happy. They work together every day and learn how to be responsible.

MODEL 2

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Nature is full of wonders. The blue whale is the largest animal in the world, but it is not the fastest. Bamboo can grow very fast in a short time. Lake Malawi, also called Lake Nyasa, is one of Africa's largest and most beautiful lakes. These wonderful things show how amazing nature is.

MODEL 3

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

The Grand Egyptian Museum is one of Egypt's most amazing cultural projects. It is located near the Pyramids, not near Luxor temples. The museum has modern architecture and large halls. It combines Egypt's past with its promising future. The GEM is the largest archaeological museum in the world and shows the greatness of ancient Egyptian civilization.

MODEL 4

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

In our class, students should always raise their hands before speaking. This helps everyone feel respected. I believe that respect builds strong friendships between classmates. Students should bring their books every day. They should treat their classmates and teachers with respect. Also, understanding starts with careful attention, so listening well in class is very important.

MODEL 5

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

The parade happened in the streets of Cairo. It was a wonderful event with bright lights and music. The mummies were inside special cars to keep them safe during the parade. The whole world watched this amazing event. It was a proud moment for Egypt and its great history.

MODEL 6

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Hazem makes a falafel sandwich every morning for breakfast. First, he gets some hot bread from the kitchen. Then, he puts four falafel balls in the sandwich. After that, he adds some salad. He puts tahini on top of the food. Finally, he eats his delicious breakfast happily before going to school.

MODEL 7

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Helping others with small acts of kindness can make people happy. Smiling at someone who is sad may make them happy. Children can help others too. You can explain homework to a classmate who needs help. Helping also means listening to a friend's problems. Everyone can make a difference by being kind every day.

MODEL 8

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

At home, we must follow some simple rules. We should keep our rooms clean and tidy every day. Speaking politely is very important at home because it shows respect to our family. Every home has rules to keep everyone safe and happy. For example, we turn off the lights when leaving a room. These rules make our home clean and tidy.

MODEL 9

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Drinking plenty of water every day keeps us healthy. It is important to make healthy choices to help our bodies and minds stay strong. Good habits like sleeping well and relaxing help our mental health. We should avoid drinking too many sugary drinks because they can harm our bodies. Healthy habits make our lives better and keep us strong.

MODEL 10

Listen to the text and answer the following questions:

Salma found a hungry cat in the street. She felt sorry for it and gave it some warm milk. Then she took the cat home and made a comfortable place for it. The cat was happy and started to play in the garden. Salma loved the little cat very much. It is good to help animals because they need care and kindness.
